For mangoes there would be also an extensive market, but unfortunately the presence of the mango weevil here would probably result in shipments of this fruit being condemned by the fruit napectors.

The presence of other peats among the fruit and vegetables would also interfere with the shipments of fresh vegetables, such as cucumbers and to-matoes, although if care were taken in the selection of the vegetables to be shipped and the authorities on the Coast impressed with the fact, a profitable industry might be worked up. The market is there anyway.

Sweet potatoes is another line in could be done. During the seasons when the erop from South is out, these vegetables bring haree cents a pound in San Francisco, at which figure there would be a comfortable margin of profit for Hawaii exporters.

women troubled with lainting spells, irregularities, nervous irritability, backache, the "blues," and those dreadful dragging sensations, cannot hope to be happy or popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible.

The cause of these troubles, how-ever, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pink-ham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs. It acts at once upon the organ afflicted and the nerve centers, dispelling effectually all those distressing symptoms. No other medicine in the country has received such unqualified indorsement or has such a record of cures of female ills as h

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Emma Runtzler, of 631 State St., Schenectady, N. Y., writes:—
'For a long time I was troubled with a weakness which seemed to drain all my strength away. I had dull headaches, was nervous, irritable, and all worn out. Chancing to read one of your advertisements of a case similar to mine cured by Lydia E. Plukham's Vegetable Compound, I decided to try it and I cannot express my gratitude for the benefit received. I am entirely well and feel like a new person."

Lydia E. Plukham's Vegetable Compound is the most successful remedy for all forms of Female Complaints, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and is invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.
